

Week 2 Requirements and Outreach Workshop

CFAN 3091V | Program Audit, Faculty Candidates, and First-Contact Message

Name: _____

Date: September 16, 2026

Course track: ☐ Proposal Development ☐ Fall Graduation Thesis Completion

Submit: Hand in the completed worksheet before leaving class. This is an in-class participation check based on the paper evidence you submit.

Part 1. Requirements Audit

Keep University Honors Program (UHP) requirements separate from program requirements. Never borrow a requirement from another program.

Sources Searched

☐ UHP Honors Requirements PDF

☐ UHP Major and Thesis Requirements page for my major

☐ official program or department page

☐ other official source: _____

Major or program: _____

URLs, page titles, or document names:

Confirmed UHP Requirements

Record the relevant proposal or completion form, committee, thesis-plan, format, and deadline requirements you confirmed.

Confirmed Program Requirements

Record required sections, approvals, courses, presentations, formats, or program deadlines. If none were published, write "none located" and list where you searched.

Open Questions

What remains unclear or unavailable?

Who can answer it? Name the Director of Undergraduate Studies, Honors Faculty Representative, Honors Advisor, academic advisor, or program office identified through an official directory.

Question I will ask and date I will ask it:

Part 2. People and Fit

Proposal Development Track

For each possible Primary Advisor, name one specific paper, project, or course and explain its connection to your focused problem. A name without a specific connection is not yet a candidate analysis.

Candidate 1: name and unit

Specific work and source:

Connection to my focused problem:

Candidate 2: name and unit

Specific work and source:

Connection to my focused problem:

Candidate 3: name and unit

Specific work and source:

Connection to my focused problem:

Fall Graduation Thesis Completion Track

If you already have a Primary Advisor, use the space above for the Primary Advisor and up to two Proposal Committee members. For each person, identify the specific thesis decision, section, analysis, or review you need from them.

Part 3. First-Contact or Action Message

Write no more than 200 words. Proposal Development students write to the strongest faculty candidate. Fall Graduation students write to the person who can resolve the most consequential requirement or reserve the needed professional-review window.

To: _____

Subject: _____

Paragraph 1, who you are and why you are writing:

Paragraph 2, the specific connection:

Paragraph 3, the concrete request and available times or response date:

Closing:

Self-Check Before Peer Review

- ☐ My subject line identifies the purpose.
- ☐ The recipient can tell why I chose them specifically.
- ☐ I named a request the recipient can answer.
- ☐ The message is under 200 words.
- ☐ Every bracket and placeholder from the example has been replaced.

Part 4. Peer Test, Revision, and Next Action

Peer reader: _____

The Generic-Message Test

Could this message be sent unchanged to any faculty member in the college?

☐ No. The specific connection is doing its work.

☐ Yes. Paragraph 2 needs a more specific connection.

What detail made the message specific, or what detail is missing?

The Action Test

What exactly should the recipient be able to do after reading this message?

Revision

Copy the sentence you changed after peer review.

Why is the revised sentence more useful to the recipient?

Next Actions

Proposal Development: Complete the other two messages by Friday, September 18. Send all three by Monday, September 21. Keep dated copies and any replies for the Week 3 meeting and Milestone 4.

Fall Graduation: Send the action or review-window message by Monday, September 21. Keep the dated response or follow-up plan for the Week 3 meeting.

My next action and date:

Instructor Check

☐ Satisfactory ☐ Not Yet Satisfactory
